Grand Triennial Session of Knights and Daughters of Tabor, August 23, 24, 25, 26, To Be Held at Met. A. of the Zion Church, Greatest in History of Order.

The triennial session of the International Order of Twelve will convene at St. Louis, August 23, 24, 25, 26, inclusive, and elaborate preparations are being made by the local committee for their reception and entertainment. The business sessions will be held in the beautiful new Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church, the preliminary session being set for Monday, August 23.

This fraternal order is one of the very few that sprung from the brain of a Negro, having been founded by Rev. Moses Olickson (now deceased) nearly forty years ago. It has grown in favor, and today numbers among its members many brilliant and successful men and women, besides having lodges in Texas, California, Florida, Transylvania, Missouri, Illinois and many other states. Delegates from all parts of the country have written for boarding reservations, and the hospitality of our citizens will be taxed to care for them.

Big Thursday
Chairman W. C. Gordon of the local committee announces that the parade, drill and ball game will be held with all previous efforts, and all who come to the Coliseum, Thursday night, August 26, will be well repaid.

Prof. James W. Grant, the premier dancing master, will direct the dances, the Great Western Band will furnish its finest dance music, and the committee assures lovers of dancing that the floor will be turned over to them at an early hour.

This is the last big fraternal convention for the season and the local committee plans to make it the best. Tickets on sale at Harris' two party drug stores, also at Macy's drug store.

Wayman Chapel Has Spirited Sunday Service

Sunday was high day at Wayman Chapel. Dr. J. F. Sager, P. E., was at his best in the forenoon, and an appreciative audience listened attentively to a well delivered sermon. At 3 p. m. Dr. J. W. S. Love, in a philosophical, theological, eloquent and highly spiritual manner, scattered fire, until the entire congregation was aglow with the holy spirit. At 8 p. m. Rev. J. E. Florence preached a short, pointed, but sweet sermon, and to boot it all over $44.00 was realized from Friday night to Sunday night. Drs. Gilbert, Stewart, Perry, Wilkins, and Rags, Graham Pearson, Gurner, Parker and Lane were with us. Come again, brethren.

The pastor is elated over the fact that so many of the good members have taken on new life. When dead limbs are cut off, it gives the main body of the tree more vitality, and the new fruit ye shall know them. The trustees, stewards, stewardesses and other auxiliaries of the church have been engaged in the closing of the first year of their administration, to bring up all the claims and prove the good policy in planning Wayman again on the corner of 23rd and Wash.

It will be a long time before you will be again so many people in and out of the church so interested in entertainment, as the people are in the "Japanese Wedding," under the leadership of Mrs. Bettie Earnest, E. Evans and others. The costumes have been purchased, the dolls are in progress, the court is being prepared, and they are preparing for the best week's fun of the season. The fair for the week will be opened by this "Royal Wedding," Monday, August 23, at 9 p. m. Don't miss it. The band will lead the march from 2706 Lucas to the church. On Sunday, the 22nd, illustrated sermon will be delivered by the pastor, J. W. Sager. Come—all are welcome.

WHAT SOME FOOLS THINK

One-third of the fools in this country think they can beat a lawyer expounding the law. One-half of the fools think they can beat a doctor healing the sick. Two-thirds of them think they can put the minister in a hole, expounding the gospel, and at the same time they can beat the editor running a paper.

At Silver Grill

This beautiful place is not only enjoying an excellent patronage, and giving an expert service from its immaculate sanitary cuisine, but also as an entertaining air that is both classic and interesting. Aside from the massive orchestra playing piano the patrons are being entertained slightly with the superb vocal and instrumental talent of Miss Egan. Next Sunday this lady will have in her repertoire a program of classic and popular sentimental songs that will appeal to the lovers of real music. She will be assisted by others of repeated ability and it will be well to enjoy the treat, that Messrs. Rice and Thompson have arranged.

BIRTH OF A NATION Infamous Race Prejudice Agitator To Be Shown at The Olympic Theatre For An Extended Run Beginning Sunday August 29.

The "Birth of a Nation," Thomas Dixon's infamous picture has been booked to show at the Olympic Theatre for an extended run beginning Sunday, August 29. Dixon is the author of "The Clansman," and the late picture, "The Birth of a Nation," dealt with infamous ideas concerning conditions existing between the white and colored people prior to and just after the Civil War. Majority of all the large cities in the country have refused to permit it to be shown. It has been pronounced as dangerous, an agitator of race prejudice, low and degrading, and a breeder of race hatred. The American people have been warned a few months ago on the coming of this picture and that time the authorities promised to suppress it if objectionable. Some time ago, Miss Charlotte Rumbold, recreation head of the Park Division, in making an objection to the play before the Board of Public Amusement, said: "It deals with the Reconstruction Period in the South, and because St. Louis is a city where the new-comers between the North and South was narrowly divided, it would be inadvisable to present such a show."

GEORGIA'S SHAME

At last they have lynched Leo. Frank. The mob spirit of the South again has triumphed. Another blot has been added to the badly stained escutcheon of Georgia. The typical lawless state of the nation has wrecked her vengeance on a helpless victim and flaunts her shame as a boast.

From first to last the Frank case has been an unspeakable disgrace to Georgia and a travesty of justice. Only one redeeming feature stands out—the moral courage of ex-Governor Slaton in commuting Frank's sentence to life imprisonment. For that act of heroism and justice the mob spirit of Georgia wanted the Governor's life. They even marched in force to his home.

Georgia sinks a bit lower—if possible—in the estimation of the nation. This is the culmination of a long series of acts of atrocity. They mock at law; they laugh at justice; they count human life cheap; they challenge the moral sense of the nation; they repudiate civilization; they taboo Christianity. Throughout her length and breadth, Georgia is a barbaric, passion-swayed horde, which, under the disguise of a commonwealth, sits in the sisterhood of States, her citizens lower than a tribe of Apaches—because the Apaches knew no better.

Of course there will be an "investigation"; and they will pass "resolutions"; and they will "exonerate" the prison officials; and there it will all end. Speaking upon this crime, Secretary of the Navy Daniels said: "The great bulk of the Southern people know that such instances, perpetrated by the few and indorsed by a small minority, work injury to their section." Mr. Daniels is wholly in error. "The great bulk of Southern people" are either in favor of, or passively indifferent to lynching; else the crime could and would be wiped out in the south. And moreover, if they "know it works injury to their section" they certainly do not care.

To the same effect speaks Governor Harris when he says: "The people of Georgia will not approve of this action." We fear his enthusiasm is greater than his truth. As to his personal approval or disapproval, we must wait to see what steps he takes towards punishing the murderers of Frank and violators of rights guaranteed under the law.

Negroes of St. Louis—you who were born or raised in Georgia—if you are not unspeakably ashamed of your State, we are ashamed of you. As parents may disown dishonorable children, or children unworthy parents, so should every Georgia Negro forswear allegiance or loyalty to a state that has always considered our color lower than a dog, and now stoops to the further crime of lynching one of its own color.

What chance now can a Negro have in Georgia—disgraced and shameless Georgia!

SOME THOUGHTS ON SEGREGATION

If they segregate the Negro, why not segregate the Italian, the Pole, and all the other races? They are not even American. We are. Why not segregate the Jew? He is of another race, though American, like ourselves. Because they are not prejudiced against these races and they are prejudiced against us. But is prejudice a just or legal cause?

If they should attempt to segregate any other race, what would happen? That race would get together in the splendid unity they all manifest on occasion and issue a mighty and concerted protest. They might even resist the attempt by force of arms. Then shall we swallow an insult without a protest or be branded without resistance?

If this segregation movement originated with the real-estate speculators and is designed wholly and only to protect certain private interests, have they any right, under the charter or constitution, to further their ends by the use of public monies? As tax-payers, are we going to stand idly by and see the treasury, our treasury, drawn upon to pay the costs of lawless, prejudiced speculators in furthering their own game?

Man is a gregarious animal; he prefers to live in rare groups. But he refuses to be forced to live in such groups. Left to ourselves, we naturally gravitate towards Negro communities. Generally speaking, like all other races, we segregate ourselves. But shall we let the other fellow proscriber our bounds and set our limits, whether we will or no?

These are thoughts worth considering. Now let the Negro manhood and womanhood of St. Louis assert itself, attending the anti-segregation mass meetings being held from time to time. Speak and act together! United we stand, but divided we fall.
